Centre for Development Studies (CDS) invites applications for its MA programme in Applied Economics for the academic year 2015-2016. The programme will commence on Thursday, July 30, 2015.

About the programme

MA (Applied Economics) in CDS is a unique master’s programme in economics that aims at providing a rigorous training in theory, tools and methods for applied economic analysis, with a special focus on issues of economic development. The degree is awarded by Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi.

MA students will be part of a vibrant research community at CDS, comprising of faculty, research scholars and visitors, working on various facets of development within an inter-disciplinary framework. Trained as applied economists, students are expected to be well prepared for careers in academia, government, national and international development agencies, research institutions, the corporate sector and the media.

Course Structure:

Students are required to complete sixteen courses: nine compulsory and seven optional courses as listed below. One compulsory course in the fourth semester is a project in which the student shall work on an empirical issue relating to India’s economy under faculty supervision. Please note that all optional courses mentioned below may not be offered every year:

Simple but nutritious meals are served at the cafeteria attached to the hostel and all hostellers are expected to eat from the cafeteria for which a monthly bill has to be paid.
Admission

Admission is based on an entrance test scheduled on Sunday, May 24th 2015 from 10.00 am to 12.00 noon at Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Kolkata, Mumbai, New Delhi & Thiruvananthapuram. No TA/DA will be provided for attending the Entrance Test. The candidates are advised to make their own arrangements for travelling and lodging for attending the Entrance Test.

Reservation

Statutory reservation for SC, ST, OBC (NCL) & PH (≥ 40% disability) candidates as per Govt. of India rules.

Entrance Test

Candidates will be tested for their analytical ability and aptitude. Candidates are expected to be familiar with the undergraduate course content of a standard Economics programme taught at the BA level. They are also expected to be aware of current national and international economic issues of importance. An illustrative list of areas to be covered is given below, especially for the benefit of candidates without an undergraduate degree in Economics.

1) Microeconomics (Theories of consumer behaviour, production and the firm)
2) Macroeconomics (National Income, Theory of Income determination, Monetary Policy, Trade and Balance of Payments)
4) India’s economy in the post liberalized period

The MA entrance test question paper will consist of two parts. The first part will have 25 multiple-choice questions with +2 marks each for correct answers and -1 for each wrong answer. The second part will have 5 passages with 2-3 short analytical questions from each passage, carrying a total of 5x10 = 50 marks. The duration of the entrance examination is two hours and maximum marks will be 100. Prospective candidates can find past question papers of the entrance examination on our website (http://cds.edu)
