

Centre for Development Studies

Thiruvananthapuram

MA Applied Economics Admission - 2024

Prospectus

Centre for Development Studies (CDS) invites applications for its two year MA programme in Applied Economics starting in the academic year 2024-25. Admission is open to Indian nationals as well as students from selected SAARC countries. Twenty-five seats are available for Indian nationals and three seats are available for students from SAARC countries. This prospectus provides details about the admission to the programme.

1. About CDS

Centre for Development Studies (CDS) is an autonomous research centre sponsored by the Government of Kerala and the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR). CDS was set up at Thiruvananthapuram under the intellectual leadership of Prof. K.N. Raj in 1970 with the mission of promoting research, teaching, and training in disciplines relevant to development. The Centre is internationally known for its research in applied economics and topics germane to development economics. The Centre is ranked first in terms of publications among the ICSSR institutes in the country and is internationally known for its research in development economics.

CDS has been running two regular programmes, MA in Applied Economics, and Doctoral Programme in Economics. Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU), New Delhi awards the degree of these programmes.

2. About the Programme

MA Applied Economics at CDS is a unique programme aiming at providing rigorous training in theory, tools and methods for applied economic analysis, with a special focus on issues of economic development.

Selected MA students will join a vibrant research community at CDS, comprising faculty, research scholars and visitors, working on various facets of development with an interdisciplinary perspective. The programme aims to equip the students in academia, government, national and international development agencies, research institutions, the corporate sector and the media. The student body organizes a placement facility with the active cooperation of the Centre.

3. Course Structure

Students are required to complete sixteen courses in four semesters. Each course carries four credits. Of the 16 courses, nine courses are compulsory and the remaining seven can be chosen from a list of optional courses listed below. One of compulsory courses in the third semester is a project that allows the students to apply the theory, methods and tools learned in other courses on an economic issue under faculty supervision. It is important to note that all optional courses listed below may not be offered every year.

Compulsory Courses

AE101: Fundamentals of Microeconomic Theory	AE105: Econometric Methods
AE102: Fundamentals of Macroeconomic Theory	AE106: Economic Development
AE103: Mathematical Methods	AE107: International Economics
AE104: Statistics	AE108: Indian Economic Development
AE208: Project

Optional Courses (at least 7 courses from the list below)

AE201: Public Economics	AE210: Gender and Development
AE202: Industrial Organisation	AE211: Labour and Development
AE203: Topics in Trade and Development	AE212: Law, Economics and Development
AE204: Economics of Technology and Innovation	AE213: Issues in Indian Agriculture
AE205: Population and Development	AE214: Issues in Indian Industry
AE206: History of Economic Thought	AE215: Political Economy, Development and Governance
AE207: Economic History of Modern India	AE216: Economics of Project Evaluation
AE209: Environment and Sustainable Development	AE217: Behavioral Economics

Apart from regular courses, a number of certificate courses are also offered. Certificate courses recently offered include the following.

- a. Financial Econometrics
- b. Advanced Economic Theory
- c. Data Analysis and Programming in R Software

4. Scholarship for students from selected SAARC Countries

With funding from government of Kerala, CDS provides scholarships to students from selected SAARC countries who enroll in the MA programme. Three scholarships are available and will be given to one student from each of the five SAARC countries, namely Bangladesh, Bhutan, Maldives, Nepal and Sri Lanka. If there is no candidate from a country, a candidate from another country will be selected on the basis of merit. Monthly Scholarship of INR15,000 will be provided to each SAARC student. The scholarship amount is usually sufficient to meet programme fee and other fees, boarding and lodging at CDS hostel and medical insurance apart from study materials for the entire duration of the course(including holidays).

5. Eligibility

5.1 For Indian students

- A bachelor's degree in any discipline with at least 50 percent of marks. Candidates from SC, ST and Persons with Disability (PWD) are eligible to apply irrespective of percentage of marks secured in the qualifying degree. The candidate must successfully complete at least one Mathematics/Statistics/Quantitative paper, either at the Plus-Two or undergraduate level, in order to apply to the program.
- Those who are appearing for their final examination may also apply. Such candidates, if selected, shall be allowed to join the programme only if they have secured the minimum prescribed percentage of marks in their qualifying examination at the time of registration to the programme. They should also submit the final mark sheets of the qualifying examination at the time of registration.

5.2 For students from SAARC Countries

- The candidate must have a Bachelor's/undergraduate degree (three year programme) with English as the medium of instruction and the three year undergraduate programme must be equivalent to an undergraduate programme of an Indian university. The student must successfully complete at least one Mathematics/Statistics/Quantitative paper, either at the Plus-Two or undergraduate level, in order to apply to the program. This requirement is in addition to the existing eligibility criteria.
- All certificates provided by the candidate must be Apostille certified before joining the programme.

6. Fees

The tuition fee for the MA Programme is INR 12000 (INR 3000 for students belonging to SC/ST/PWD category) per semester. There is also one-time JNU Registration/Enrolment fee of INR 10115 and miscellaneous charges of INR 500.

7. Scholarships and Prizes

MA students with an annual family income of less than 2 lakh and who secures a grade point average of A (-) or more in all semesters would be offered (i) Semester fee waiver, (ii) Free hostel accommodation and (iii). Free Basic Cafeteria meals. However the semester fee for the first semester cannot be waved off. This fee waiver facility is available from second semester onwards and to avail this, eligible students have to apply in each semester.

There are also two prestigious cash prizes to be won for those securing the highest marks in the quantitative subjects and the overall course, known respectively as the M.G Kanbur Prize and the Joan Robinson Prize.

8. Hostel Facilities

Hostel facility will be given based on availability on a shared basis. There are hostels for men and women on the campus. All rooms have attached bath and are modestly furnished. All hostel residents are expected to have their meals at the cafeteria where simple and nutritious food is served.

9. Library and Computing Facilities

The Centre has one of the finest libraries in social sciences in the country. It has a total collection of over 1,50,000 titles in Economics and allied social sciences and subscribes to over 3,500 journals available online to faculty and students. Further, it has Wi-Fi enabled campus, including the student hostels and has a good collection of all leading econometric softwares. There is also a laptop loan facility that is provided to students who fulfill certain conditions.

10. Admission

Indian students and students from SAARC countries have separate admission procedures. The details are given below.

a. Admission procedure for Indian students

The candidates appeared in the Common University Entrance Test – CUET (PG)-2024 conducted by NTA for the Test Paper Code COQP10 and satisfy the eligibility criteria as per clause 5.1 can apply.

Candidates, shortlisted on the basis of CUET score, will be called for interview. The selection to the MA Programme will be on the basis of CUET score and interview.

Interested candidates are requested to visit CDS website (www.cds.edu) regularly for admission related updates.

b. Admission procedure for students from SAARC countries

There is no application fee for candidates from SAARC countries. Such candidates are exempted from the Entrance Test and will be interviewed online. Selection will be done on the basis of their performance in the interview. Candidates will be informed about the date and time of the interview well in advance.

11. Reservation

Statutory reservation for Indian candidates belonging to SC, ST, OBC (NCL), Economically Weaker Sections (EWS) and Persons with Disability (PWD) with $\geq 40\%$ disability as per Govt. of India rules is provided. Reservation is applicable to only 25 seats earmarked for Indian students.

12. How to Apply

Candidates are required to apply online through the online application portal available in the website: www.cds.edu. It is the responsibility of the candidates to ensure that all the relevant details are correctly entered. Application Fee is INR 300 and it is non-refundable. There is no application fee for candidates belonging to SC,ST, PWD (with $\geq 40\%$ disability) categories. The veracity of these details will be checked later and the candidates should be able to submit the relevant documents during that time. Applications that are found to be incomplete or contain incorrect information will be rejected without any notice.

13. Jurisdiction clause

Any disputes arising in connection with the admission process shall be subjected to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Kerala High Court. This prospectus is subject to modification/addition/deletion as may be deemed necessary by the Centre from time to time.

14. Important Dates

Date of Online Registration	May 6, 2024 to May 31, 2024
Online interview for shortlisted candidates	Second week of June, 2024

Please note that the dates mentioned above are tentative and candidates are advised to keep checking our website for latest updates about important dates and admission related matters. For any queries or additional information please contact Academic Programme Office on Tel: 0471 2774253/4 during office hours (9 AM to 5 PM) or write to us (admissionma@cds.edu)