1. About CDS

Centre for Development Studies(CDS)is an autonomous research centre sponsored by the Government of Kerala and the Indian Council of Social Science Research(ICSSR). CDS was set up at Thiruvananthapuram under the intellectual leadership of Prof. K.N. Raj in 1970 with the mission of promoting research, teaching, and training in disciplines relevant to development. The Centre is internationally known for its research in applied economics and topics germane to development economics.

CDS has been running two regular programmes- MA in Applied Economics, and Doctoral Programme in Economics. Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU), New Delhi awards the degree of these programmes.

2. About the Programme

MA Applied Economics at CDS is a unique programme aiming at providing rigorous training in theory, tools and methods for applied economic analysis, with a special focus on issues of economic development.

Selected MA students will join a vibrant research community at CDS, comprising faculty, research scholars and visitors, working on various facets of development with an interdisciplinary perspective. The programme aims to equip the students in academia, government, national and international development agencies, research institutions, the corporate sector and the media. The student body organizes a placement facility with the active cooperation of the Centre.
